Become an Ally

Now Then Allies is a new value-led membership network launching in Sheffield this year.

It's about bringing organisations and groups together from across sectors to impact on the big issues facing our city and thrive as organisations.

It's for any organisation or group who want to problem solve together and who support the values of collaboration, inclusivity and sustainability.

As an ally you'll gain access to a shared resources bank, discounted content and marketing services, your own profile on the Now Then website and regular cross-sector networking and peer-to-peer support meetings.

We believe we can do things differently to build a better Sheffield which we can all benefit from.
